

Ulugbek Amankulov – Portfolio

About Me

My name is Ulugbek Amankulov, and I am a highly motivated high school student currently studying in South Korea. I am preparing to pursue a university degree in Business Marketing / Business Administration with the goal of becoming a globally minded marketing professional with strong practical experience.

From a young age, I developed a strong interest in sales and business activities through hands - on experience. I independently bought and sold various products such as clothing, watches, smartphones, gadgets, and gaming devices. These experiences helped me understand customer behavior, pricing strategies, communication, and real market dynamics.

Academic Background

I am currently studying at Munhak Information High School ( ) in South Korea, with an expected graduation year of 2026. My academic focus aligns closely with my long - term career goals in business and marketing.

Skills & Competencies

Business & Marketing: Sales and reselling experience, customer communication, basic pricing strategies, market and consumer understanding.

Technical & Design: HTML (Beginner), Adobe Photoshop (GTQ Certified), Adobe Illustrator (Basic), Hangul document formatting.

Languages: Uzbek (Native), Korean (Fluent – TOPIK Level 6), English (Intermediate), Russian (Basic).

Projects & Practical Experience

I am building a personal portfolio website using HTML to showcase my skills, experience, and career goals. In addition, I have independently managed multiple sales and trading projects both online and offline, including sales through the Coupang platform.

Activities & Personal Development

I hold a 2nd Dan (2 ) Black Belt in Taekwondo, which reflects years of consistent training, discipline, and mental resilience. Taekwondo has strengthened my perseverance, focus, and long - term commitment.

Career Objective

My objective is to study Business Marketing at a Korean university and grow into a globally competitive marketing professional. I aim to combine academic knowledge with real - world experience to create meaningful impact in the field of marketing.
